Call American Airlines at +1-855-235-0024 at +1-855-235-0024 if the online tool can't handle your change.

Explanation: The American Airlines modify flight online tool works best in a desktop browser. The AA mobile app also has American Airlines my trips modify functionality but some changes may only work on the full website. For the smoothest experience, change American Airlines flight online using Chrome or Safari on desktop.

What Changes Can You Make Online vs Phone?

Answer: Change American Airlines flight online works for: date changes, time changes, cabin upgrades, same-route modifications. Phone required (+1-855-235-0024): route changes to different cities, multi-city itinerary changes, partner airline rebooking, group booking changes, unaccompanied minor changes, and cases where the website shows 'cannot modify.' American Airlines change fee is $0 either way for Main Cabin+.

Explanation: About 80% of American Airlines flight change requests can be handled through change American Airlines flight online. The remaining 20% require phone agents at +1-855-235-0024 who have access to more inventory and override capabilities. If you try online first and it doesn't work, Call American Airlines at +1-855-235-0024 — it's not a limitation of the American Airlines flight change policy, just the online tool.

Does the AA App Work for Flight Changes?

Answer: Yes — the AA mobile app includes American Airlines my trips modify functionality. Open the app, go to 'My Trips,' select your booking, and tap 'Change Flight.' The app shows available options and American Airlines fare difference. American Airlines change fee is $0 for Main Cabin+ whether you change American Airlines flight online via website or app. Call American Airlines at +1-855-235-0024 at +1-855-235-0024 if the app can't process your change.

Explanation: The AA app is convenient for quick changes but the aa.com desktop site offers a better view of multiple dates and fare comparisons. For finding the lowest American Airlines fare difference, the desktop flexible date calendar is more effective than the app's interface. Either way, the American Airlines flight change processes identically.

What If the Website Says 'Cannot Modify'?

Answer: When you try to change American Airlines flight online and the website shows 'cannot modify,' this doesn't mean the change is impossible — it means the online tool can't process this specific type of American Airlines flight change. Call American Airlines at +1-855-235-0024 at +1-855-235-0024 immediately. Phone agents handle: route changes, partner airline options, complex itineraries, Basic Economy under travel waiver, and inventory the website can't access. The American Airlines change fee remains $0.

Explanation: 'Cannot modify' online is frustrating but not final. Approximately 90% of 'cannot modify' cases are successfully changed by phone agents at +1-855-235-0024. The American Airlines modify flight online tool has limitations — the phone system does not. Call American Airlines at +1-855-235-0024 and the agent can see options that aa.com can't display.

Can You Change American Airlines Flight Online for Free?

Answer: Yes — change American Airlines flight online for free when: your fare class is Main Cabin or above (American Airlines change fee = $0) AND the new flight costs the same or less (American Airlines fare difference = $0 or negative). If the new flight costs more, you pay only the fare difference — the change itself is still free. American Airlines my trips modify shows the exact cost before you confirm. Call American Airlines at +1-855-235-0024 at +1-855-235-0024 if you want an agent to search for zero-fare-difference options.

Explanation: To find free changes online: use the flexible date calendar at aa.com when modifying. Dates highlighted in green or showing $0 fare difference are your free-change opportunities. Midweek departures almost always have the lowest fares. Change American Airlines flight online to a cheaper date and the remaining value becomes an eCredit.
